SALONI AHUJA

Saloniahuja.vogue is about voguish as style never goes out of fashion, its a fashion and travel blog

I am Saloni Ahuja a Fashion Designer from Pearl Academy , Fashion Stylist and Image consultant from NABA university, milan , Italy . From the very beginning fashion industry fascinated me as i have worked in short movie scenes with Kareena Kapoor , Akshay Kumar etc . Moreover I have been Mr and Miss Delhi NCR finalist and was titled as Miss Congeniality and Miss Talented . I started blogging because i always wanted to inspire people with latest upcoming International trends with the best of styling. I always wanted to introduce International styles in India and a fusion of both all over the world Assuming provocative and petite styles can also be introduced as sophisticated and elegant standards

Having 3+ years of work experience in this industry and even more as a stylist , I am now being identified as a unique collaborator who adds a lot more value to brands by delivering good quality content rather than just creating visibility
